

February 16, 2019 MMRWA Program

Tina Radcliffe will speak on “The Romantic Arc”

The Romantic Arc

The romantic arc is the very heart of a romance novel. How do you take two people with conflicting external and internal goals from hello to I love you? The romantic arc is all about the emotional journey that culminates with your hero and heroine finally together. Harlequin author, Tina Radcliffe, will discuss the Stages of Intimacy as well as the Falling in Love Arc she’s created. This program also includes helpful handouts you’ll use over and over again to create an emotional and believable romantic arc for your novels.

Tina Radcliffe’s Bio:

A freelance writer for over twenty years, Tina Radcliffe is an RWA Honor Roll member, a two-time RWA Golden Heart finalist, and three-time American Christian Fiction Writers Carol Award nominee. She is also a 2018 ACFW Mentor of the Year recipient. Her 11th book for Harlequin releases in February 2019. Besides novel-length fiction, Tina has sold over two dozen short stories to Woman’s World Magazine. A former registered nurse and library cataloger, Tina is a frequent workshop presenter. She currently resides in Arizona, where she writes fun, heartwarming romance. Visit her on the web at <https://www.tinaradcliffe.com/>

Twitter <https://twitter.com/TMRadcliffe>

Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/tinaradcliffeauthor/>

Instagram <https://www.instagram.com/tinaradcliffe/>

Pinterest <https://www.pinterest.com/tinamradcliffe/>

Webpage <http://www.tinaradcliffe.com/>